FULL DAY ULENDO
#DISCOVER AFRICA

To Ulendo is a Central African term for going to bush. To truly experience Africa in all her glory one must spend as many of the waking hours exploring her beauty. On Ulendo you will wake with the morning chorus and follow the sun's shadow across the African plains until it dips to the horizon. To Ulendo, is to take your time and search out Africa's big game, its gorgeous birdlife, its variety of small species and its contrasting landscapes. Listen to it, see it, experience. True safari was never meant to be rushed.

DISCOVER MORE:

As the first rays of light peer over the Eastern horizon greeting the Kruger National Park, it will signal for its gates to open. This is where you will begin your bush Ulendo. 'Going-to-bush' and discovering Africa over a full day, is an extraordinary experience. Waking with all of its wildlife and watching as they go about their daily journey, our guides will interpret and share with you their story. We want our Safarras to experience the Kruger National Park visually, imaginatively and emotionally. For this very reason your guides are not only experts on the land and its wildlife but also its heritage and folklore. You will seek out its wildlife. You will go in search of the legendary Big 5. Ulendo shares with you the story of Kruger and the people and cultures that created this mystical place. Ultimately you will leave thrilled, connected and in touch with this majestic home of African safari adventure.
